

AMY CATERINA / PALOMAR COLLEGE / PHOTO 120

MIDTERM STUDY GUIDE

1. Define white balance.
2. Name 2 ways to adjust white balance.
3. Name the 5 parts of the histogram.
4. What is a histogram.
5. Name 3 ways to adjust the contrast of a photograph.
6. What is your favorite way to adjust the contrast in a photograph and why.
7. Name two ways to set the black and white points of an image.
8. If you add files to the Lightroom Pictures folder on your hard-drive OUTSIDE of the program, what do you need to do in Lightroom to add these images to the catalog?
9. How do you make a smart collection?
10. Name 2 ways to rate an image.
11. What is your favorite way to rate and organize your photographs?
12. What is the difference between the Vibrance and the Saturation sliders?
13. Define dodging and burning.
14. How do you dodge and burn in a localized manner in Lightroom?
15. How do you rename files?
16. What is your favorite way to name your images and why?
17. What is a virtual copy and why would you use one?
18. What are the two types of noise? What panel do you use to reduce noise?
19. What is a DNG?
20. Why would you convert a RAW file to a DNG?
21. Why use the lens correction panel? Advantages?
22. What does the HSL panel control?
23. What percentage do you zoom into before applying sharpening?
24. How do you export your images and catalog to submit for grading?
25. How do you export large RAW files into emailable JPGS?